

The variation in water level (cm) in Akka since 1955 between 1 June and 1 June the next year. After a high flood the floodplains at 200 and 100 cm are immersed early and half May, respectively, but when the peak flood has been low the same floodplains are already dry from January onwards.